Press Release

October 2016

The Lex 100 survey has announced the winners for the 2016/17 survey consisting of anonymous responses gathered from over 3,000 trainees at 173 law firms across the UK.

Maples Teesdale has been announced as a winner in the Client Contact category where trainees commented that Maples Teesdale 'has a fantastic reputation as a boutique commercial property law practice', and its training contract is therefore considered ideal for those keen to 'work with true property experts'. As a 'niche specialist property firm', Maples Teesdale 'attracts impressive clients' and represents them on 'really exciting projects and transactions'.
