Press Release

September 2017

Maples Teesdale advises Fragrance Group on hat trick of hotel purchases:

The Townhouse Hotel in Manchester,
The Crown Hotel in Harrogate and
The Lyndene Hotel in Blackpool

Maples Teesdale are pleased to have acted for UK subsidiaries of the Singaporean Fragrance Group in their acquisition of three hotels to add to their growing portfolio of assets in the UK.

The 85 bedroom Townhouse Hotel is located in the centre of Manchester on Portland Street. Formerly known as the Pickles Building, it was constructed in 1870 as a textile warehouse and is now Grade II listed.

The 300 year old Crown Hotel is set in the heart of historic Harrogate. The hotel has 115 bedrooms as well as extensive conference facilities.

The Lyndene Hotel on the Promenade in Blackpool overlooks the sea and is a short walk to South Pier. The 141 bedroom hotel offers a range of evening entertainment including live music.
