

Maples Teesdale appoints new partner to leading commercial real estate practice

April 2023

Maples Teesdale, specialist corporate real estate firm, has promoted a new partner effective 1 April 2023.

Commercial real estate specialist Charles Elgood has been promoted to Partner in the commercial real estate team. Charles joined Maples Teesdale as Of Counsel in 2015 after training at Simmons & Simmons followed by a career at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Travers Smith and Brecher.

Charles has extensive experience working on acquisitions and disposals, including forward purchase and forward funding deals. He is also involved in day to day asset management work for retail centres and industrial parks.

Paul Burke, managing partner at Maples Teesdale, said "We are delighted to welcome Charles into the partnership. This promotion enhances our partner-led service and commitment to our clients. With strong technical and leadership skills, Charles will play a key role in ensuring we continue to provide exceptional client service and insight."

For further information please contact
Caroline Daubeney
Head of Business Development
E: cdaubeney@maplesteesdale.co.uk
T: 020 3465 4356